

A CHANNEL ISLANDS WEEKEND

A Gathering of California's Underwater Photographic Societies & Underwater Photographers

Three Days of Diving Off Vessel Conception • Thursday through Saturday October 20th-22nd

➤ Price: $675 • A LIMITED LOAD TRIP! ➤

Trip Leaders: Underwater Cinematographer Chuck Davis, Underwater Photographer Jason Bradley, and Kevin McDonnell -- owner of Swimmages Underwater Portraiture.

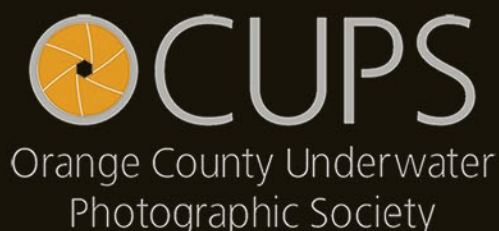

Join us for a weekend of underwater photography in California's Southern Channel Islands. We will be targeting Catalina and Santa Barbara Islands to dive with and photograph sea lions, California's majestic kelp forests, giant black sea bass, and much more. We will be boarding the vessel Conception and departing from Santa Barbara on the evening of October 19th for three days of diving. The boat returns to Santa Barbara on Saturday, October 22nd, at about 5:00PM. All meals and air fills are included on the trip and gear rentals are available at the dock. Chuck and Jason will each lead a discussion on photography and cinematography and all trip leaders will be available to help participants improve their photography.
